The Harvest is Plentiful

Spiritual Enrichment Weekend

23-25 July 2010

God has been blessing the London church in lavish fashion.

Already this year, He has given us more growth than in any of the past seven years. Many of those baptised and restored are family members, which adds to the sense of rejoicing. He is pulling us together with a unity of spirit and purpose. He has stirred the hearts of many to volunteer for leadership in areas of need. God is building his body in London, preparing us for works of service, to His glory.

Meanwhile, in our city this year, there are likely to be record numbers of people out of work, more teenage knife-crime fatalities than in any previous year, and an expanding catalogue of broken homes, confused values and darkness that is the bitter fruit of the 'prince of this world', whose strangulating grip upon a weak-willed and misguided generation seems to only be tightening.

Must God's plan to set the captives free go unfulfilled?

This year's Spiritual Enrichment Weekend is entitled, "The Harvest is Plentiful" and is aimed at reminding us of God's desire for everyone to come to repentance, equipping us to be ambassadors for Christ, and calling us to a renewed vision of a London that is open to the gospel and vital to world evangelism. Let us all cherish this opportunity to encourage one another and learn what it means to have His soul-winning heart. He who did not spare His One and Only Son, but gave him up freely for us, will surely be with us and provide insight, strength and victory to His wholehearted children in London!

Let's free the captives, because the harvest is plentiful.

Your brother, Mohan

Visiting Speakers

Chris & Kim Reed

We are thrilled to welcome Chris & Kim Reed as our visiting speakers this weekend.

They were converted in the Boston campus ministry ('81 & '82 respectively) and have been married for 24 years.

They planted the church in Stockholm in 1986 and went on to establish the church in Copenhagen in 1990. Later they returned to the United States and served the churches in Philadelphia, Washington DC and Denver in the areas of marrieds, singles and campus, before returning to Stockholm in 2009 to serve there as evangelist and women's ministry leader.

They have three children aged 22, 20 and 13, two of whom are at university while the youngest is still at home, and will be with us at our Spiritual Enrichment Weekend.

Please reach out to them and give them a warm London welcome.

May God give us the faith to reap what he has prepared.

'Send Out Workers': Chris & Kim Reed

Saturday 1.30pm

We all have personal harvest fields. How can we be effective in these fields and reap the harvest for God that he has prepared? Chris and Kim Reed will share scriptures and practical suggestions for reaching out effectively in the different harvest fields we find ourselves in. These classes will be separate men and women.

'Peace to this House' – Good Enough Parenting: Adrian & Maureen Hill

Saturday 3pm

No parent is perfect, but we can all be 'good enough'. This class taught by Adrian and Maureen Hill is the seventh in the ground-breaking series authored by John & Karen Louis. All parents are urged to attend whether we have attended the previous classes or not.

'Two by Two': Ian Mohlie, Claudine Gayle, Malcolm & Penny Cox

Saturday 3pm

This dating workshop will include interactive discussion and teaching on the topic of Encouragement Dating – its biblical implications, role in the church, and practicals for keeping it fun and spiritual. We call all singles to come and take part!

'Your Names are Written in Heaven': Dr Penny Cox

Building on material shared at the women's day earlier this year, Penny will be sharing scriptures and resources to help women better understand how anxiety and depression can develop.

'I Praise you Father...': Toks Sowoolu

Tentmakers - How can we take the God-given talents refined through years of work, and use them to glorify God, in work, with our families and in the church. James Thomas will lead a class to help Professionals, live out the dream of serving God, whilst also excelling in work.

'The Kingdom of God is near': Mohan Nanjundan

Sunday 10.30am

Kingdoms rise and fall just like banking systems and governments. Jesus said his kingdom was different because it was to be a kingdom with radical values and would never be shaken. What is so different about God's kingdom? Come and find out.

'I Saw Satan Fall...': Chris & Kim Reed

Sunday 2.30pm

Those called, trained and sent out by Jesus saw their faithful service used by God to defeat Satan's schemes. Come and hear inspiring teaching from Chris & Kim that will help us to see God move in a similarly powerful way in our Family Groups.
